hey sir,
really limited internet access here so haven't been able to get online much. Finny wanted to go see the Bonobos before we left Congo yesterday, so we went early in the morning, we had lots of fun.
Then a couple of her and Dr. B on the ferry yesterday in Sierra Leone. Rained as we were pulling onto the ferry and for about the first 20 mins of the ride across but the last 30 it stopped and the breeze picked up and it was really nice. Have a long day of stuff here and then get on the plane tonight to fly back, think we get in about midnight. I should be back in the office tomorrow.
